

Deanne Reyes

Deanne Reyes is a dedicated counsellor psychotherapist in private practice and student liaison with the Metavision Institute. With a rich background in management within the biomedical equipment industry, Deanne made a transformative career shift after graduating from the Metavision course in 2011. Her decision was influenced by life experiences that were often beyond her control, a common theme among Metavision students who seek the course for its transformative nature.

Deanne has grown into a pivotal role within the Metavision hub, serving as a student liaison for all Metavision courses. She is passionate about communication and the Metavision Model, seamlessly guiding her transition from her previous career to her current role. Deanne embodies the holistic principles of the Metavision Model in her private practice and her work with people from all walks of life.

In addition to her work with Metavision, Deanne is the mother of five grown sons. She teaches the Holistic Counselling Skills Certificate and presents the two-day Foundational Counselling Skills workshop. Her extensive experience and empathetic approach make her an invaluable resource for students and clients alike, fostering a supportive and transformative learning environment.
